SKOPJE

- Mustafa Pasha Mosque - an Ottoman-era mosque located in the Old Bazaar of Skopje, Macedonia. The structure stands on a plateau above the old bazaar, built in 1492 by Mustafa Pasha, vizier on the court of Sultan Selim I.
- Macedonia Square - the biggest square in Macedonia. It is located in the central part of the city, and it crosses the Vardar River.

OHRID

- Lake Ohrid - straddles the mountainous border between southwestern Macedonia and eastern Albania. It is one of Europe's deepest and oldest lakes, preserving a unique aquatic ecosystem that is of worldwide importance, with more than 200 endemic species. It was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1979.
- The Church of St. Sophia - located in the city of Ohrid, Republic of Macedonia. The church is one of the most important monuments of Macedonia, housing architecture and art from the Middle Ages.

TIRANA

- The Skenderbeg Square - the main plaza in the centre of Tirana, Albania. The square is named after the Albanian national hero Gjergj Kastrioti Skënderbeu. The Skenderbeg Monument dominates the square.

BUDVA

- Sveti Stefan - a small islet and 5-star hotel resort on the Adriatic coast of Montenegro, approximately 6 kilometres southeast of Budva. Formerly an island, Sveti Stefan is now connected to the mainland by a narrow isthmus.

KOTOR

- Cathedral of Saint Tryphon - Cathedral of Saint Tryphon - Cathedral in Kotor is one of two Roman Catholic cathedrals in Montenegro. One of the best preserved and most beautiful medieval fortified towns in the Mediterranean built in 1166. It was built in honor of Saint Tryphon (local name Sveti Tripun).
- Our Lady of the Rocks - is one of the two islets off the coast of Perast in Bay of Kotor, Montenegro. It is an artificial island created by bulwark of rocks and by sinking old and seized ships loaded with rocks. The Roman Catholic Church of Our Lady of the Rocks is the largest building and it has a museum attached.

DUBROVNIK

- Stradun (or officially 'Placa') - is the main street in Dubrovnik Old Town. It divides the Old town (part of Dubrovnik built within medieval walls) on two, more or less, equal parts - northern and southern. Stradun is stretched from Pile Gate (western entrance to the old town) to the Old Town's port. It used to be a channel that divided small island on which Dubrovnik was built from the mainland. Later on, the channel was filled to create the main town's street.

ARRIVE KUALA LUMPUR

MOSTAR

- Stari Most (Old Bridge) - is a 16th-century Ottoman bridge in the city of Mostar in Bosnia and Herzegovina that crosses the river Neretva and connects the two parts of the city. One of the country's most recognizable landmarks. Stari Most diving is a traditional annual competition in diving organized every year in mid summer.

TRAVNIK

- Travnik Fortress - is one of the most beautiful and best preserved medieval fortified buildings in Bosnia on which later historical periods left their distinctive characteristics. In so far known historiography sources, there is no record of the year and the duration of construction, or the builder. The present appearance of the walls and towers themselves are the result of intervention of Turkish builders of military fortifications.

PLITVICE LAKES

- Plitvice Lakes National Park - is one of the oldest national parks in Southeast Europe and the largest national park in Croatia. In 1979, Plitvice Lakes National Park was added to the UNESCO World Heritage register.

BLEED

- Bled Castle - is a medieval castle built on a precipice above the city of Bled in Slovenia, overlooking Lake Bled. According to written sources, it is the oldest Slovenian castle and is currently one of the most visited tourist attractions in Slovenia.
- St. Mary's Church Bled - also known as the Pilgrimage Church of the Assumption of Mary, or Our Lady of the Lake, is located on a small island in Lake Bled.

LJUBLJANA

- The Triple Bridge - is a group of three bridges across the Ljubljanica River. It connects the Ljubljana's historical, medieval, town on one bank, and the modern city of Ljubljana, capital of Slovenia, on the other. Since 2007, all the three bridges have been part of the Ljubljana pedestrian-only zone.
