MOSTAR

- Stari Most (Old Bridge) - Is a 16th-century Ottoman bridge in the city of Mostar in Bosnia and Herzegovina that crosses the river Neretva and connects the two parts of the city. One of the country's most recognizable landmarks. Stari Most diving is a traditional annual competition in diving organized every year in mid summer.

DUBROVNIK

- Dubrovnik's Ancient City Walls - Dubrovnik's Old Town is completely surrounded by enormous stone walls that date back to the 10th century. Up to 6m (19ft) thick and 2.5m (8ft) high in places, Dubrovnik's Ancient City Walls were built to protect the city and deter would-be invaders.

SPLIT

- Diocletian's Palace - Is an ancient palace built by the Roman Emperor Diocletian at the turn of the fourth century AD, that today forms about half the old town and city center of Split, in Croatia. The historical monument here was designated as a World Cultural Heritage site in 1979.
- River Waterfront - Is the most lively place in Split. It stands in front of Diocletian's Palace, once the home of the Roman emperor. The waterfront is a focal point of community activity where the city meets the sea. It is also the main public square, the space for all kinds of social events, promenade by day, parade by night, the site of sport events, religious processions, festivals, celebrations and political rallies.

ZADAR

- Church of St. Donatus - The Church of St. Donatus is a church located in Zadar, Croatia. Its name refers to Donatus of Zadar, who began construction on this church in the 9th century and ended it on the northeastern part of the Roman forum.

ZADAR

- Plitvice Lakes National Park - The Plitvice Lakes are considered to be one of the most beautiful natural destinations in Europe. Due to its natural beauty and significance, this system of 16 interlinked lakes and a large forest complex around it were set aside as a national park in 1949, World Heritage Site since 1979.
