The city's French colonial legacy is seen in its downtown Mauresque architecture, a blend of Moorish style and European art deco. Standing partly over the water, the enormous Hassan II Mosque, completed in 1993, has a 210m minaret topped with lasers directed toward Mecca.
- The Hassan II Mosque - is a mosque in Casablanca, Morocco. It is the second largest functioning mosque in Africa and is the 7th largest in the world. Its minaret is the world's second tallest minaret at 210 metres.

CHEFCHAOUEN

- Chefchaouen - is a city in the Rif Mountains of northwest Morocco. It's known for the striking, blue-washed buildings of its old town. Leather and weaving workshops line its steep cobbled lanes. In the shady main square of Place Outa el Hammam is the red-walled Kasbah, a 15th-century fortress and dungeon, and Chefchaouen Ethnographic Museum. The octagonal minaret of the Great Mosque rises nearby.

FEZ

- Fez - is a northeastern Moroccan city often referred to as the country's cultural capital. It's primarily known for its Fes El Bali walled medina, with medieval Marinid architecture, vibrant souks and old-world atmosphere. The medina is home to religious schools such as the 14th-century Bou Inania and Al Attarine, both decorated with elaborate cedar carvings and ornate tile work.

MIDELT

At the foot of the dunes you will find many campsites and amenities that will make your excursion to the desert of Morocco an adventure out of this world. When talking about Morocco it is almost impossible for us to avoid thinking about the vast desert that accompanies it: the Sahara Desert, the largest desert expanse on our planet, is also the most diverse. In Morocco you will find two major popular desert areas. One of them, the Erg Chebbi desert, is just a stone's throw from the town of Merzouga, which is why many call this city "the Gateway to the Desert". It is also the reason why the Erg Chebbi desert is commonly known as the Merzouga desert.
- Sahara camel ride desert dunes - camel ride in Merzouga is an ideal Morocco camel tour for those who are staying at a hotel in the Merzouga area and would like to experience a camel ride and discover the magic of desert which is the largest and the most beautiful sandy desert all around Morocco. With its colorful sand where you will watch a lovely sunrise and wonderful landscapes, take amazing photographs.
- Merzouga Desert Camp - is your special home in Morocco. Enjoy your special night under the stars at this beautiful camp. Experience sunset and sunrise from the top of the dunes. Your desert experience includes an authentic Moroccan dinner under the stars and breakfast in the morning.

OUARZAZATE

- Ouarzazate - is a city south of Morocco's High Atlas mountains, known as a gateway to the Sahara Desert. Its huge Taourirt Kasbah, home to a 19th-century palace, has views over the rugged local landscape, which features in several movies. Northwest is the fortified red-earth city of Ait Ben Haddou.

AIT BENHADDOU

- Ait Benhaddou - is a historic ighrem or ksar along the former caravan route between the Sahara and Marrakesh in Morocco. It is considered a great example of Moroccan earthen clay architecture and has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1987.
