BARCELONA

- Basilica Sagrada Familia - Basílica Sagrada Familia is a large Roman Catholic church in Barcelona, designed by Catalan architect Antoni Gaudí (1852 – 1926). Gaudí's work on the building is part of a UNESCO World Heritage Site and in November 2010 Pope Benedict XVI consecrated and proclaimed it a minor basilica, as distinct from a cathedral, which must be the seat of a bishop.
- Park Güell - Is a public park system composed of gardens and architectonic elements located on Carmelo Hill. In 1984, UNESCO declared the park a World Heritage Site.

VALENCIA

- The Estacio Del Nord - Is the main railway station in Valencia, Spain. It is located in the city centre next to the Plaza de Toros de Valencia, the city's bullring.
- Cathedral of Valencia - Is a Roman Catholic parish church in Valencia. It was consecrated in 1238 by the first bishop of Valencia after the Reconquista.

GRANADA

- Generalife - The name 'Generalife' means 'garden of the architect'. The Generalife is located on the hill Cerro del Sol, adjacent to the Alhambra. Originally it was most probably an architect's house that later passed to the royal family and was remodeled. The Generalife is composed of a series of large gardens, where every corner holds a novelty and a pleasant surprise for the eyes, with a minimum of obtrusive buildings.

SEVILLE

- Seville Cathedral - Is a Roman Catholic cathedral in Seville. It is the largest Gothic cathedral and the third-largest church in the world. It was registered in 1987 by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site.
- Torre del Oro - Is a dodecagonal military watchtower in Seville, built by the Almohad dynasty in order to control access to Seville via the Guadalquivir river.

TOLEDO

- Church of Santo Tome - Dates from the 12th century, although it was completely rebuilt in the early 14th century by the Count of Orgaz. The tower is one of the best examples of the Mudéjar art characteristic of Toledo.
- Alcantara Bridge - Is a Roman stone arch bridge built over the Tagus River at Alcantara between 104 and 106 AD by an order of the Roman Emperor Trajan in 98.

MADRID

- Royal Palace of Madrid - Is the official residence of the Spanish Royal Family at the city of Madrid, but is only used for state ceremonies.
- El Corte Inglés Department Stores - Headquartered in Madrid, is the biggest department store group in Europe and ranks third worldwide. The complex encompasses several buildings and carries the most comprehensive collection of designers of any large store in Spain.
