PHU QUOC

- ◆ Ho Quoc Pagoda - The most magnificent temple on Phu Quoc Island, beautifully built along the hillside facing the vast ocean. Surrounded by peaceful natural scenery, visitors can admire exquisite Buddha statues and traditional architecture. An ideal place for prayer, sightseeing, and photo opportunities while experiencing the island's spiritual culture.
- ◆ Sunset Sanato Beach - A popular Instagram-worthy attraction featuring creative sculptures and artistic installations along the seaside. In the evening, the beach blends perfectly with the glowing sunset, making it one of the best spots to enjoy breathtaking views and capture memorable photos.
- ◆ VinWonders Phu Quoc - Often referred to as the "Disneyland of Vietnam," this large-scale theme park consists of six themed zones with thrilling rides, live shows, and interactive experiences. Suitable for families, couples, and young travellers, whether you prefer exciting attractions or entertaining performances, there's something for everyone.
- ◆ Grand World Phu Quoc - Known as the "Little Venice" of Phu Quoc, this European-style waterfront complex features restaurants, cafés, bars, and retail shops. Guests can explore scenic photo spots by day and enjoy romantic lighting at night. Optional activities include a gondola ride or visit to the Teddy Bear Museum (own expense).
- ◆ Sun World Hon Thom Nature Park - Located in An Thoi Town at the southern part of Phu Quoc, this park combines natural island scenery with exciting attractions. Guests will experience the world's longest overseas cable car (7,899 meters), offering panoramic views of turquoise seas and surrounding islands. Upon arrival, enjoy water park activities, land rides, and plenty of photo opportunities — perfect for both fun and relaxation.
