TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

BUSAN

- ◆ Gamcheon Culture Village - Is like a fairytale village with vibrant colors, rich artistic charm, and friendly residents. It was named by CNN as "Asia's Most Artistic Village."
- ◆ Jagalchi Market - Korea's largest fish market in South Korea since 1889 is a must-go destination for all seafood lovers out there. The market offers every type of fish and seafood you can imagine. The market is known for their female vendors, who are called "Jagalchi Ajumma", with their passionate enthusiasm in selling goods. You can also eat all the sashimi you wish for a very reasonable price.
- ◆ Oryukdo Skywalk - Is a U-shaped glass walkway on a seaside cliff in Busan, offering thrilling ocean views 37 meters above the sea. A popular photo spot with scenic beauty.
- ◆ Yonggungsa Temple - Located in Gijang-gun, Busan, Haedong Yonggungsa Temple is the only seaside Buddhist temple in Korea, founded in 1376 by Master Naong Hyegeun. Perched on a cliff, it offers stunning views of the ocean alongside its serene temple grounds. The combination of majestic architecture and breathtaking coastal scenery makes it a unique and special destination.

GYEONGJU

- ◆ Bulguksa Temple - In Gyeongju, built in 528 AD during the Silla Dynasty, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Known for its stunning architecture and cultural treasures like the Dabotap and Seokgatap pagodas, it offers a serene glimpse into Korea's Buddhist heritage.

YONGIN

- ◆ Starfield Library - Step into the Starfield Library, located inside the COEX mall in Seoul, and discover a dreamy space spanning approximately 2,800m². Surrounded by three towering bookshelves, each soaring 13 meters high, the library feels like a fairytale come to life.
- ◆ Everland - Is South Korea's largest theme park, established in 1976. The park is divided into five themed zones and features Asia's steepest wooden roller coaster, the "T-Express," a large Safari wildlife area, a botanical garden, and the Caribbean Bay water park, making it ideal for families and young visitors.

SEOUL

- ◆ Gyeongbokgung Palace - Built in 1395, is the largest and most historically significant royal palace in Korea. It served as the main palace of the Joseon Dynasty and remains a major cultural heritage site and popular tourist attraction in Seoul.
- ◆ Gwangjang Market - Is one of Seoul's oldest and largest traditional markets, known for its over 5,000 shops and a wide variety of authentic street foods. Popular delicacies include mung bean pancakes, "narcotic" gimbap, and seasoned raw beef. The second floor, filled with fabrics and traditional hanbok, is a must-visit for shopping enthusiasts.
